Travel Insurance

It's important to me that you never be at a financial risk, so I'll be asking you to confirm that you have travel insurance for the trip. It's important that you not wait for just before the trip to get this, as once you provide a non-refundable deposit (which I need because those are the terms of my suppliers), you could be at risk. As such, get travel insurance concurrently with providing any deposits. FYI, it's cheaper to get two insurance packages...a small one for the first deposit, then a second for the larger balance.
